FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH OF SALT LAKE CITY

JUNE 22, 2015

End of Year Picnic

A HUGE Thank you goes out Joe Herring, Kacie and Simon Fuller, Jim French and the Gregory family for their wonderful job of planning and carrying out the annual picnic this year! It was great fun, beautiful weather and delightful people to be around. Thanks also to Jenni Killpack-Knutsen for organizing and taking money, Jim Turner and all those who flipped burgers; Matt Wilson, Philip Moos and all the others that helped with clean up. Such a big job, but so many dedicated people volunteering their time. Thank you for making this such a community-building event for First Church!

-Nancy Moos

Thank you to Joan Gregory for her help with getting photos from this year's event

Congregational Briefs

The Open Minds Book Group will not meet during the summer

The next meeting will be September 22, and the book is "We Are Called To Rise," by Laura McBride. The book for October is "The Emerald Mile," by Kevin Fedarko. All are welcome.

Mindfulness Meditation

Mindfulness Meditation in the Haven 2:00 pm July 8 and 23. Guided Meditation: Intention and Attention, followed by walking meditation.

What does First Church have in common with the Marine Corps?

Both are seeking a few good men and women to serve. Facilitating a monthly discussion group is an opportunity to serve our congregation. So far, 12 have answered the call to be a facilitator in Small Group Ministry from October to May. Two more are needed. The job is rewarding and it requires only four hours a month. Please step up! An e-mail to John Rasmuson, njras@hotmail.com, is all it takes.

Association for the Tree of Life Launches:
ASK PHILANTHROPISTS: Climate
Breakthrough Now!

-submitted by Joan M. Gregory, Co-
Coordinator, Environmental Ministry

Philanthropy is "nickeling and diming" the climate. To protect our climate, philanthropy must "go big" now. You can push the climate movement in a few seconds by signing this letter: <http://tinyurl.com/ATLletter>. Hundreds of letters have been sent, and we need many more to capture the attention of philanthropists. Sign on and share with a friend! Ask Philanthropists to STEP UP and FUND the Movement we Need to Dump Fossil Fuels! Watch video, send letter, and share now: <http://tinyurl.com/ATLWatchSendShare>.

Tar Sands Mine Vigil Camping in PR Springs on the Tavaputs Plateau

-submitted by Kathy Albury and Joan M. Gregory, Co-Coordination, Environmental Ministry

Peaceful Uprising and Utah Tar Sands Resistance are inviting us to the PR Spring Tar Sands Mine Vigil Family Camp Out, June 19-21. Bring the kids and grandparents. Tour the Mine. Tar Sands art.

Primitive camping in beautiful PR Springs. On the Tavaputs Plateau in eastern Utah. You need to see it before it is mined! For more information follow: <http://www.tarsandsresist.org> or <http://www.peacefuluprising.org> or call Kathy Albury 801-803-2384.

And, another camping opportunity: Art for Action: A Skills-Share Camp, July 3-5. Join Peaceful Uprising and UTSR for 3 days of art creation on the East Tavaputs Plateau, where we're working hard to stop tar sands mining from going forward. Workshops on photography, guerrilla theater, banner making, and costume making. Build your skills while creating amazing artwork the campaign can use all season! Discussion circles, art in action, role of art in social movements, climate justice, countering oppression, hiking and more. To attend Art Camp, please email Volunteers@PeacefulUprising.org to get directions, info about camp norms, and get your questions answered.
